

23 April 2013

TE TURE WHENUA MĀORI ACT REVIEW PANEL DISCUSSION DOCUMENT

Tēnā koe

The Government is currently undertaking a review of Te Ture Whenua Māori Act 1993 (the Act). An expert panel has been appointed to develop proposals aimed at simplifying the complex rules governing Māori land, freeing its economic potential and strengthening guardianship.

A discussion document, entitled Te Ture Whenua Māori Act 1993 Review Discussion Document, has been released to provide an opportunity for feedback on the propositions developed by the panel.

Enclosed is a copy of the Discussion Document for your consideration. If you wish to make a submission, please make the submission to TTWMA@tpk.govt.nz or Te Ture Whenua Māori Act 1993 Review Panel, c/o Te Puni Kōkiri, PO Box 3943, Wellington by no later than 17 May 2013.

Ngā mihi

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a stylized 'J' and 'C' followed by a horizontal line.

Jason Clarke
Policy Manager