

NGĀRIMU VC & 28TH (MĀORI) BATTALION MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

In commemoration of the bravery shown by Second Lieutenant Te Moananui-a-kiwa Ngārimu and the members of the 28th Māori Battalion, these scholarships are designed to financially assist students of Māori descent attending a recognised tertiary institution.

The Manakura Award recognises an individual who may not be studying at a tertiary institution, but displays leadership skills in their field of interest. For the first time this year, applicants can apply, or be nominated, for this award.

Six scholarships are available:

- Three Undergraduate Scholarships:
$10,000 per year of full time study, for up to five years
- One Masters Scholarship:
$15,000 per year of full time study, for up to two years
- One Doctoral Scholarship:
$25,000 per year of full time study, for up to two years. The Doctoral scholarship is to support doctoral candidates throughout the final 24 months of study.
- One Manakura Award:
$30,000 for one year.

The Ngārimu VC and 28th (Māori) Battalion Memorial Scholarship Fund Board are looking for applicants who meet the criteria, are of Māori descent, and possess characteristics that are considered consistent with those of the 28th Māori Battalion.

Recipients will be selected in 2013. The Scholarships and Award will be awarded and paid in accordance with milestone periods from 2014 year.

Scholarship payments will be pro-rated where recipients complete less than a year of full time enrolled study.
