Te Matau a Māui Voyaging Trust is a Charitable Trust.

The trust was formed by a small group of experienced ocean voyaging sailors trained in the arts of celestial navigation and Polynesian sailing. The trust operates 'Te Matau a Māui' – a waka hourua (traditional double-hulled sailing vessel).

The trust's passion is developing people and communities through Māori Culture, sailing, traditional navigation, environmental protection and sustainability. The trust delivers programmes in schools, on the sea within the community, various iwi and the corporate sectors.

Cost of the wananga $20 koha
