Whānau Ora Navigator

The Whānau Ora Navigator will develop and implement whānau aspirational plans within a community setting. This position will provide a whānau centred service working towards whānau self-management. It will provide a focal point for gathering health information, liaison and communication, advocacy and other support as identified by whānau. The position is required to promote a proactive approach to health and wellbeing and provide support to whānau to bring about better whānau outcomes.

A key function is to engage with whānau. This is to provide coordination and/or facilitating activities, services and opportunities to support the aspirations of whānau to become self-managing and promote health, economic, cultural, social development and wellbeing. Applicants must include a cover letter, CV and evidence of the required capabilities as per the position description.
